JURY DISAGREED—The jury disagreed in the case against W. W. Wilson, alias W. J. Wilson. Wilson was charged with stealing the automobile owned by Max Viallet of Mesa, and the case was tried before Judge Stanford. Ten of the jurors were for conviction and two for acquittal.

LICENSED TO WED—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to James J. Lewis of Ardmore, Okla., and Martha E. Trammel, Phoenix; William G. Nelson, Gilbert and Edith Maude Randall of Winkelman; Nathan Albert Morford and Margaret Alexandra Smith McCulloch; and Charles Luke and Eunice Kilpatrick.

AT THE COMMERCIAL—Bert Witche, H. Harlin, J. A. Flynn, Los Angeles; James S. Clark, Croton on Hudson, N. Y.; S. Sensheimer, San Francisco; J. W. Conley, El Paso; M. Marks, New Orleans; Geo. H. Goebel, N. Y.; G. Looma, T. Looma, Arthur Lee, Andrew Kimball, Thatcher, T. C. Regan, Los Angeles; J. E. Coveny, Columbus, O.; F. L. Dickinson, San Francisco; G. F. Weaver, Los Angeles.

LANGLEY DIVORCE—Sarah Langley, colored, was granted a divorce yesterday from Walter Langley and given the custody of their daughter, Rosie May. Sarah asked for legal separation on the grounds of non-support, and her testimony and that of her witnesses brought out the fact that she had been compelled to provide for herself here and at Ray. One of her incidental remarks was that her husband "beat her up." Judge Lyman signed the decree.

JUAN IN A HURRY—Juan Gomez did not wait to be told a second time when Judge Parker gave him his choice of ninety days in jail or an hour to say good-bye to Phoenix. He went. Hardly had the judge completed his remarks before Gomez beat a retreat. Gomez and Ramon Valenzuela were arrested by the police for vagrancy, but Valenzuela was able to convince the court that he was not an associate of Gomez and had merely met him the evening they were taken into custody. In his case, Judge Parker sentenced him to ten days and suspended the sentence owing to the man's ill health.

QUIET WEDDING AT CATHEDRAL HOUSE

Miss Margaret McCulloch, Noted Landscape Artist Becomes Bride of N. A. Morford Of this City

Miss Margaret Alexander Smith McCulloch, the well known landscape artist and Nathan Albert Morford, prominent in public affairs in Arizona for more than a quarter of a century were married at five thirty o'clock yesterday at the Trinity Cathedral. Bishop Atwood, assisted by Dean Scarlett, read the service. It was a simple, unostentatious wedding with only the immediate relatives present at the ceremony and at the supper that followed at the Adams hotel. The bride who was unattended, wore a charming white net gown and large white hat. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Morford kept their immediate plans secret, but announced that they would be formally at home after June 1 at 136 North Third Avenue. The bride came to Phoenix from Philadelphia five years ago, the family having located in Pennsylvania from Scotland. She became best known by her work in art winning several prizes at the state fair a year ago. She is a sister of James and William McCulloch.

Mr. Morford came to Phoenix as early as '78. He returned to his home in San Francisco but a year later again came to Arizona and with the idea of making it his permanent home bought Charlie McClintock's interest in the Phoenix Herald. He later became sole proprietor of the paper and through its columns advocated the building of a railroad in to Phoenix and was instrumental in securing the construction of the Arizona canal. He championed every movement that tended toward the growth and development of the western country. He edited the Herald until 1899 when he sold his interest to Frank Murphy. Mr. Morford has been prominently identified with political life having served as secretary of the territorial commission that made the state asylum for the insane. He had a long term as probate judge and was also a member of the city council for several years. Actively interested in school affairs, he served as school trustee when the Central school was rebuilt and introduced many progressive features into the school system. He is at present engaged in real estate and loans. He is a Shriner and belongs to the Odd Fellows.

HAD WORDS WITH A FELLOW WORKMAN
Jesus Ramos charged with assault with a deadly weapon charged his plea of not guilty to miltly in Judge Stanford's division of the superior court yesterday. Judge Stanford will pass sentence at nine-thirty o'clock this morning.

Ramos had difficulties with another Mexican in Esosque and the section foreman in separating the two, was made the victim of Ramos who drew a knife on him. He was arrested and brought to Phoenix where he has been held since the assault occurred March 23.

PARKER VISITORS

Mrs. Peter Tisdale and son Frank of Parker, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Tisdale, 622 North First Street. The Salt River valley is becoming not only the center but the head of a great industry, the citrus and olive nursery. C. L. Helm yesterday sent a shipment of olive and citrus trees to the state of Washington. They were purchased by a resident of the state who had spent the winter in Phoenix and had seen the trees at the Helm nursery. The citrus trees in that climate will be grown under glass but the olive trees will be planted in the open. Mr. Helm has sent several car loads of trees to Yuma and California this season.

EASTER PARTY

One of the bright Easter day events was a birthday party given in honor of Miss Hazel Tarney at her home on West Washington. The hostess was Mrs. Kate Tarney and host Harold B. Meyer. The guests arrived at 4:30 and at 5:30 sat down to a charming four course dinner. The table was beautifully decorated in yellow and white, with individual favors at each plate. Miss Tarney received many pretty gifts. Those present were Misses Hazel Tarney, Helen Dodes, Nettie Spencer, Myrtle Kilpatrick, Billy Harrington, Robert Tarney, Horace Edwards.

ARE YOU IRISH —OR SCOTCH?

and even if you're not fortunate enough to be, you'll enjoy "the Songs of Ireland" and the "Songs of Scotland" which have been combined in a big double-faced Victor record, embodying the favorite parts of fifteen popular songs of those countries.

Included are Killarney, Come Back to Erin, the Last Rose of Summer, The Harp That Once Through Tara's Halls, Love's Young Dream, The Wearing of the Green, Scots Wha' Hae, Blue Bells of Scotland, Loch Lomond, Comin' Thro' the Rye, Here's Health to Bonnie Scotland, Annie Laurie, The Campbells are Coming, Will Ye No Come Back Again, and Auld Lang Syne.

This attractive record is priced at only $1.25 and is one of the many fine offerings in the new May list of the Victor. We'd like to play it for you today. Berryhill's demonstration rooms are the most modern and comfortable in the southwest and visitors are always welcome.

Devote Paint will out-last ordinary paint about three to one as a rule. Get it for your next job. Have your painter use it.
